

A woman with dark hair and a pink headband is sitting at a desk, working on a dark blue laptop. A small white candle sits on the desk next to her. A line of sight from her eyes connects to a light gray rectangular window titled "Login". The window contains fields for "User name" and "Password", each with a placeholder text "Enter your [field type]". It also features a large black "Login" button and a link labeled "Forgot password?".
